

The San Diego Union-Tribune

$1.85
PLUS TAX

sandiegouniontribune.com

WEDNESDAY • MARCH 20, 2019

What's Happening

Main events

March Madness: The tournament runs through April 8. Here's where you can watch the games and eat:

- Coaster Saloon in Mission Beach is offering specially priced game-day burgers and fries. Watch the game on a large projection screen alongside 15 flat-screen TVs in addition to a $20 beer bucket, $6 Coors Light 22-ounce draft or $5 buzzer-beater shot specials. 744 Ventura Place, San Diego. cohnrestaurants.com/coastersaloon.

- Draft Republic executive chef Mike Camplin will dish up game-day delicacies at special prices like the 3 Point Shot combo, a mix of chicken lollipops, Draft Republic burger and your choice of any tap beer for $21.95. Watch every slam dunk on the 100-inch projection screen in La Jolla or on one of 50-inch flat-screen TVs in Carlsbad. 4282 Esplanade Court, La Jolla and 5958 Avenida Encinas, Carlsbad. cohnrestaurants.com/draftrepublic.

New Drink Menu ▼: Jalisco Cantina has introduced a new weekly Margarita Flight Special served every Wednesday for $14. Guests can customize their flights and choose from a variety of diverse and refreshingly cool margari-tas, including Mexican Candy, Coco Piña, Spicy Tamarindo, Pink Cadillac, O'side Agua, Passion Mint and Prickly Pear. 213 N. Coast Highway, Oceanside. (760) 429-1679 or thejaliscocantina.com.

It's Afternoon Tea Time ► : Noon, 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m. Saturdays at La Valencia,

